

Directions to the Washington Native Plant Society Seattle Office

The office is located in Warren G. Magnuson Park. The park entrance is at 7400 Sand Point Way NE, Seattle, WA.

Upon entering the park, drive straight ahead. The WNPS office will be on your left in Building 30 (6310 NE 74th St.)

It is a brick building attached to an airplane hangar. Enter the door with the blue awning that says Seattle Parks and Recreation.

The WNPS office is upstairs. Directional signs will guide you.

For meetings:

The downstairs conference room is immediately on your left upon entering the front door.

The upstairs conference room is a large open area on the building's second floor.
