White flowers in spring (above) turn into clusters of red-orange berries in late summer (below).

This evergreen tree can grow to 90'.

Leaves are leathery, oval and whitish-green beneath.

Cinnamon-red outer bark curls and peels. Older trees may have no remaining outer bark.

Pacific Madrone
Arbutus menziesii

PNW Native Plant
PPNC: 49

Photo by Heidi Bohan