Each leaf has ten to seventeen leaflets, up to 5” long, arranged in a whorl.

Fruits are hairy pods up to 2” long, which open to eject seeds.

Blue to violet flowers grow in clusters on stalks up to 16” long.

Large-leaved Lupine
Lupinus polyphyllus

This herbaceous perennial shrub can grow to 5’ tall.

PNW Native Plant
PPNC: 195

Deciduous Tree
Shrub
Ground Cover
Wetland
Riparian Prairie
Meadow
Forest

Photograph by Heidi Bohan

© Starflower Foundation 2006