

General: Deciduous perennial; 1'-3' tall

Form: Basal clump with single upright flowering stalk

Flowers: Yellow, dandelion-like flowers occur after dandelion bloom

Photo by Heidi Bohan

Photo by Heidi Bohan

Hairy underside

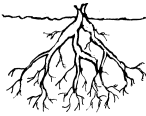

Similar Non-natives
Hairy and smooth hawkbit, Leontodon spp., along with dandelion, Taraxacum spp., have similar leaves, flower, and form and are managed in similar ways.

Photo by Heidi Bohan

Management Strategies

- Always remove
- Thickened roots: Remove major
- Primary spread: Seed

Check with parks department or school district for proper disposal.

WPGS: 294

False Dandelion, Hairy Cat's-Ear

Hypochaeris radicata

A Non-native Plant

© Starflower Foundation 2006

General: Deciduous perennial; 1'-3' tall

Form: Basal clump with single upright flowering stalk

Flowers: Yellow, dandelion-like flowers occur after dandelion bloom

Photo by Heidi Bohan

Photo by Heidi Bohan

Hairy underside

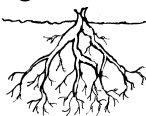

Similar Non-natives
Hairy and smooth hawkbit, Leontodon spp., along with dandelion, Taraxacum spp., have similar leaves, flower, and form and are managed in similar ways.

Photo by Heidi Bohan

Management Strategies

- Always remove
- Thickened roots: Remove major
- Primary spread: Seed

Check with parks department or school district for proper disposal.

WPGS: 294

False Dandelion, Hairy Cat's-Ear

Hypochaeris radicata

A Non-native Plant

© Starflower Foundation 2006