

Native Plant Professionals List

This information was compiled for your convenience by the volunteers of the Washington Native Plant Society. The persons listed here are all members of the Society, and many are Native Plant Stewards. The individuals on this list can provide professional input on your landscaping projects. This list is not comprehensive nor is it an endorsement for the listed businesses. To include additional professionals on the list, please contact the Washington Native Plant Society at wnps@wnps.org. For more information on gardening with native plants, visit <http://www.wnps.org/landscaping/index.html>.
